Where there is a choice of online or face to face teaching, students will be given a deadline to make the decision on whether to study online or face to face (likely late August). After that deadline, swapping between online and face to face teaching may not be possible, though we will try to accommodate changes where we can.

Are there any changes to the content of the course, compared with what was agreed previously?

None

Are there any changes to the assessment methods we are using?

None

Are there any changes to previously advertised field trips, placements, or other external activities?

Trip to Black Country Museum during induction may not be feasible. Extra enrichment opportunities during reading week may not be possible in semester one. Hoping to offer during reading week in semester 2.

When might what is set out above change?

We intend to use the teaching methods set out above for the whole of Semester 1 of the 2020-21 academic year.

If there are more severe restrictions on movement or gatherings as a result of changed government guidance (e.g. in the event of another wave of Coronavirus), teaching that is planned to be on campus may have to be moved online. In that instance [all of the face-to-face teaching for your course
